SCHOFIELD SOCIETY

(Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence)

SCHOFIELD BARRACKS, April 17.
Mrs. Fletcher of St. Paul, Minn., was the guest of honor at an attractive auction party given by Mrs. Larry Mc-Afee on Easter Monday. The ladies who enjoyed Mrs. McAfee's hospitality were Mesdames Kennon, Butts, Harbold, Willard, Mapes, Reichmann, Sinclair, Mitchell, Cruikshank, Naylor, Mason, Glassford, Hunt, Gose and Miss Elks.

The scheme of play differed from the usual in that eight hands were played instead of four, before the winning partners progressed, and the innovation met with success. The first prize was an exquisite Satsuma cup and saucer and was won by Mrs.
Mitchell. Mrs. Cruikshank, with second highest score, won a Japanese jewel box, and Mrs. Mapes was the lucky recipient of the consolation, a wicker basket filled with violets.

Mrs. Fletcher arrived last week on the Korea and plans to visit Col. and Mrs. French of Fort Shafter after leaving Schofield.

Most of the garrison of Schofield was present at a delightful entertainment given by Colonel McGunagle on Friday in his attractive quarters—the old royal hunting box. Mrs. Holabird was the guest of honor of the afternoon, which was by way of a farewell, as she leaves so soon for the homeland. The guests were received by Colonel McGunagle and Mrs. Holabird in the attractive grounds. The devotees of the dance enjoyed to the utmost the excellent music and the good floor of the spacious living room which had been cleared for them, while "tea" and a delicious punch made by the Colonel's own recipe were served under the trees.

Last Monday evening Lieut. Watrous was host at an unusually attractive dinner given in the rathskellar of the Young hotel. The table was decorated with white and purple violets and valley lilies, with corsage bouquets for the ladies and boutonnières for the gentlemen of the same flowers. The guests were Lieut. and Mrs.
Beard, Miss Charlotte Reichmann, Miss Katherine Winans and Lieutenant Maxwell. The party later attended the dance given by Miss Lila McDonald.

Thursday, Mrs. Cassel gave the first of a series of auction afternoon, entertaining Mesdames Kennon, Harrison, Reichmann, Beard, Mitchell, Short, Winans, Frankenberg, Chitt, Glassford, Marr, Butts, Bunker, Gardenhire, Willard, Scherer, McKinlay, Dodds, Parker, Donovan, Jones and Ennis. Mrs. Parker won first prize, a pair of rhinestone slipper buckles; Mrs. Marr, second, a large Hawaiian basket, and Mrs. Dodds third, a small Hawaiian basket.

On Tuesday Mrs. Douglas McCaskey gave a luncheon in honor of Mrs.
Holabird, who is soon to leave for home. The table was very dainty in its pink and green appointments. Pale pink carnations filled a graceful center vase and the place-card favors were tiny ladies with unfurled parasols made of pink and green crepe paper.
The guests were Mesdames Howell, Harrison, Cruikshank, Holabird and Winans.

Wednesday afternoon Mrs. Seth Cock of the Cavalry garrison entertained with an 11-table auction party.
Mrs. Cheney won first prize, a pair of linen pillow cases trimmed with fillet lace, and Mrs. Naylor was given consolation, a box of correspondence cards.

Friday evening, Major and Mrs.
Harrison gave a dinner complimentary to Mrs. Holabird. Other guests were Major and Mrs. Cruikshank, Miss Augur, Lieut. Hattie and Owen, Miss Ruth Harrison and Mr. Wallace.

Captain Arthur Cassels has been appointed adjutant of the 1st Field Artillery upon the completion of the detail as adjutant of Captain Harry Williams, who takes command of E Battery.

Mrs. Robert Harbold was hostess at a three-table auction party on Tuesday. The prizes were attractive guest towels trimmed with cross-stitch embroidery and crocheted lace edge.

Lieut. and Mrs. Dodds and Little-son returned to this station on the last transport after a two months' leave spent in St. Louis and Detroit.

Saturday afternoon and evening Mrs. Holabird and Miss Augur will be at home to a number of Schofield friends at the Haleiwa hotel.

Col. and Mrs. Menohar gave a very enjoyable musicale on Friday, in honor of Mrs. Neal's guests, the Misses Wilson, Bull and Sherman.

Lieut. George Gay, 1st Field Artillery, has returned to duty and is very much improved after his stay at the Shafter hospital.

Capt. and Mrs. Frankenberg's guests for dinner on Friday were Lt. and Mrs. Glassford.

Col. McGunagle gave a large reception at Schofield Barracks last Friday in honor of Mrs. Holabird.

KINDERGARTEN
WORK REVIEWED
IN FINE BOOKLET

In the form of an exceedingly attractive booklet of 120 pages the 1913 calendar of the Free Kindergarten and Children's Aid Association of Hawaii, has just been issued. The calendar contains reports of the officers and committees who have carried on the work of the past year, and there are a number of special articles relating to work with children. A chronological table shows that kindergarten work was begun in the islands in 1892, and the growth from year to year is strikingly brought out.

At the present time there are 7 kindergartens maintained by the association, having a total enrollment of 182 children of 11 different nationalities, as follows: Part-Hawaiian, 173; Portuguese, 202; Japanese, 323; Chinese, 293; Russian, 24; Filipino, 7; Porto Rican, 17; Spanish 22; Korean, 17; American, 2; others, 2.

The expenditures for 1913 were:
For kindergarten, $9513.77; for playground, $1552.85; for Castle Home, $6715.59.

The officers of the association are:
Mrs. Wallace R. Farrington, president; Mrs. G. P. Wilder, vice-president; Mrs. F. M. Swamy, 2nd vice-president; Mrs. S. B. Dole, 3rd vice-president; Mrs. David Olson, recording secretary; Mrs. F. M. Swamy, financial secretary; Miss Wilhelmina Tenney, treasurer kindergarten dept.; Mrs. E. A. R. Ross, treasurer Castle Home dept.; David Anderson, auditor.

DAINTY FRITTERS
MAY BE MADE OF
FRUITS AND NUTS

Many times the housewife needs some extra dish that may be easily made either to sharpen the appetite of her family or to fill in a meal that is not quite complete. I recommend for such emergencies the fritter in its various forms and combinations.

For a plain fritter especially adapted to many variations I use one beaten egg, into which I pour one measuring cupful of sweet milk, one level teaspoonful of salt, one tablespoonful of sugar, one teaspoonful of vanilla, 1 tablespoonful of melted butter and two and a half level teaspoonfuls of baking powder sifted in enough white flour to make a semi-stiff batter. Some flours seem to thicken more than others, and for that reason I am not giving an exact quantity. The proper consistency for gems and muffins should be about right for the fritters.

If fruit or anything else is used in the fritters the batter should be a little heavier than for the plain fritter. These plain fritters make a quickly prepared breakfast dish and are excellent served with maple syrup.

One must remember to have the fat of moderate temperature, increasing the heat after the fritters have been in for a minute or two. I always dip my batter out of the bowl and into the hot fat with a teaspoon which I have first dipped in the fat. This makes a smooth and even-sized fritter and one that is done all the way through by the time the crust is a rich brown.

A fritter made of Graham flour is especially good. The same quantity of everything is used, but Graham flour is substituted for the white, using a trifle less.

I have also eaten another fritter made by scaling a cupful of yellow cornmeal and stirring into it one beaten egg, a teaspoonful of salt, two tablespoonfuls of sugar and a teaspoonful of vanilla extract. To enough white flour to make a batter of proper consistency add two and a half tea-spoonfuls of baking powder. With maple syrup these fritters make an excellent breakfast dish.

A pleasing and rather unusual fritter may be made by making a plain fritter batter and stirring into it one cupful of chopped nut meats. These may be peanuts, English walnuts, almonds, butternuts, or hickorynuts. I mention these various kinds of nuts because at least one variety can be found in every section of the country.
It is a great thing to be able to use in a variety of ways the things that one has at hand, and some varieties of nuts are simply a gift for the person who will rather them and who knows how to use them. The nut fritters seem to be especially adapted for serving at a semi-hearty meal like
